Spring Break

Had a great Spring Break with three that were in wheelchairs. Talk about space challenges. We had the opportunity to go to the Artisan and enjoyed the play "Sleeping Beauty." Everyone "pigged-out" at Chili's Restaurant.

Garage Sale Results

In spite of the extreme spurts of wind gusts we had a great time. All were quite exhausted. In fact, several mentioned how tired and sore they were the next day and even on Monday.

We had plenty of "stuff." What didn't sell we took to Goodwill. Hoorah for Goodwill!

We made enough to pay all the utilities remaining for March. Yeah!

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to everyone that helped with the Garage Sale:

- Planners
- Item donators
- Clearing our supply room and getting the items outside on Saturday.
- Helping with the sale
- Getting the "leftovers" packed up and off to Goodwill.
- A GREAT BIG TY & HUGS to everyone!!!!!!!!!!

Be sure to remember the true meaning of Easter: Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Enjoy your church's celebration of this season!

Jonathan wanted to shovel the driveway but all we had was this fireplace shovel. Yes, it really was an impossible task but he enjoyed doing what he was able to clear.

Giving

is very important these days. We now have four families where someone has lost their job. It's a serious time for these families.

Community Service

is a "big" thing right now throughout our area. Many do not have the funds to help others but they do have time. Take the time to help a friend.
